SALARY: ₱480,033 per annum (Starting salary)

APPLICANTS MUST HAVE THE REQUIRED RESIDENCY PERMITS TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR CONSIDERATION.

The U.S. Embassy in Bangkok is seeking an individual for the position of Administrative Assistant in the U.S. Agency for International Development/Regional Development Mission for Asia (USAID/RDMA), located at Athenee Tower, Wireless Road, Bangkok.

JOB SUMMARY:

The position is a Training Administrative Assistant for Asia Regional Training Center (ARTC). The incumbent will oversee all aspects of participant tracking and roster management, coordinate printing/productions of training materials, and act as a point-of-contact for all invoicing for printed materials, catering and course procurement. The incumbent will likely be the first point of contact for the hundreds of students, visitors, and trainers who arrive to the center for training on an annual basis. The incumbent is responsible assisting visitors and students, such as greeting and directing, assisting with registering/checking in students, providing guidance on where to find classrooms and responding to inquiries ranging from lunch locations to tourism sites to how to dial long distance. He/she also serves as customer service representative for the training facility, answering the phone, resolving issues/questions when possible, and directing inquiries appropriately.

MAJOR RESPONSIBILITIES:

I. TRAINING ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT:

80%

The incumbent will manage all aspects of participant tracking for every training course and event at ARTC (estimated at 125-150 events per year), all of which require a significant amount of email and telephone correspondence. Primary responsibility includes the following:

- Approving training participants' Electronic Country Clearance requests,
- Ensuring participant's travel details are being recorded in a separate database for each event,
- Arranging Embassy access, if requested,
- Preparing/submitting building access lists, and

- Updating student rosters, post-training.

Incumbent will act as the primary point of contact and Subject Matter Expert (SME) for the web-based Learning Management System (LMS), which is administered by USAID/W. He/she will manage participant rosters, to include approving registration and waitlist requests, responding to and resolving inquiries related to registration and user profiles, monitoring class sizes, and updating participant transcripts upon course completion. Incumbent ensures that training events and related information are easily accessible to employees via LMS or other methods as required. Tracks registration on the LMS to monitor attendees and ensures wait-listed participants are provided a seat when late cancellations occur. Ensures that attendance is at or near the maximum level and works closely with the Training Coordinator to solicit participants when attendance is low, including posting course announcements throughout the ARTC.

Coordinate with course organizers and local print shop for reproduction of course materials. This includes providing information to course organizers regarding cost, options or special requests. Incumbent must carefully review soft files and printing instructions, translating the instructions into Thai for the vendor in most cases. Incumbent is required to check quality and accuracy of all sample course materials from the print shop before approving mass reproduction, communicating any required revisions, and reviewing all materials upon final order completion.

When not being reproduced in Bangkok, incumbent will coordinate delivery of materials with course organizer and assist with any shipping or customs questions. Incumbent is also responsible for appropriate, organized storage of all materials until course commencement.

The incumbent is responsible for ensuring all ARTC resources are consistently updated. This includes a facility logistics guide and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) as well as several Standard Operation Procedure (SOP) manuals, Embassy and emergency phone numbers, such as, hospitals, police and tourist information. He/she will also assist in the organizing and/or printing of training certificates.

The incumbent will greet visitors, direct them to the appropriate classroom and provide instructions for check-in. Incumbent will serve as a telephone operator of the training facility and will respond to all phone inquiries, directing callers to the appropriate office or person, taking messages, or resolving basic questions within the scope of the incumbent's duties. The incumbent will assist participants with general inquiries such as the following:

- Request for taxi service or BTS Sky Train information,
- Locations for lunch or dinner, including making reservations for group lunches or dinners,
- Instructions for visiting other RDMA offices or the Embassy,
- Flight information,
- How to make a phone call, and
- How to mail material or boxes.

Incumbent will ensure check-in and check-out procedures are completed for all instructors. Also ensure that all classrooms have been set up properly with appropriate stationary and that all equipment is in good working order upon class completion. He/she will open training events by providing briefings on the ARTC, Bangkok, events, issues and security as well as providing information on points of contact within the training center and USAID/RDMA Mission as needed.

The incumbent acts as a Point of Contact for vendors, course instructors, USAID/W and local offices, often acting as a liaison between all of them, and relaying information to other ARTC staff. When requested, incumbent will arrange transportation and provide offsite coordination and/or facilitation, such as, with training-related site visits.

The incumbent will provide both instructors and participants basic IT support and troubleshooting, primarily in regards to audiovisual (A/V) equipment malfunctions, email access, and Wi-Fi support. He/she will submit IT HelpDesk tickets accordingly and coordinate with HelpDesk colleagues when a higher level of technical support is required. He/she will also work closely with the HelpDesk to identify additional IT or A/V needs for ARTC, such as, required maintenance of equipment as well as additional equipment purchases.

The incumbent will provide additional administrative and secretarial support as needed and will provide back-up and additional assistance to other ARTC team members when needed. This may include assisting with classroom setup, inventory and reporting, and other duties as requested.

II. SECRETARIAL FUNCTIONS:

Coordinate all print shops and catering invoices as well as payment between course organizer and RDMA offices of procurement and finance to ensure timely payment. Follow-up with course organizers on unpaid invoices. Generate procurement requests for materials or catering funded by ARTC. Assist in source selection and proposal development when acquiring a new service or product such as local delivery of training and additional print shop vendors.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED AND SELECTION CRITERIA:

All applications must address each selection criterion detailed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item in DS-174 block no. 19-22. If the application submitted fails to demonstrate eligibility, the application will be marked unqualified. It is the responsibility of the applicant to provide all pertinent information.

- (1) Education: Two years of secretarial college, vocational college, or commercial college is required.
- (2) Experience (15 points): Three years of progressively responsible experience in the field of administrative management with multinational company or international organization is required.
- (3) Language: Level IV speaking/reading and writing English and Thai are required.
- (4) Knowledge (20 points): Thorough knowledge of standard office procedures and customer service practices are required. Basic familiarization with U.S. Government (USG) policies/procedures, with Thai Government organizations, and non-governmental organizations. Familiarization with USG procurement process is required.
- (5) Skills and Abilities (65 points):
The incumbent must possess strong skills in the following: oral and written communications, effective team working and team building, customer service, multitasking and prioritizing. Must be able to prioritize tasks and respond to multiple and divergent inquiries. Demonstrate ability to obtain knowledge in using A/V, VDO teleconference and ARTC A/V equipment. Must be proficient in using computer and office software such as MS Word, Excel, Power Point, e-mail and computer savvy, able to learn the use of new programs related to the job quickly.

SELECTION PROCESS:
